

File reference	W17FOI019
Key words	The top 10 reasons children attend the Emergency Department
Date of release	06/02/2017
Attachments	No

Freedom of Information Act Disclosure log - Reply Extract

You asked

Can you provide the top 10 reasons children attend the Emergency Department based on the past 12 months of available data?

Children are any person under the age of 18 years of age

Our reply

Here's the top 10 main diagnosis descriptions assigned to children (<18) within the past 12 months:

Main Diagnosis Description in order of volume assigned – (Highest first)
Minor Head Injury - Glasgow Coma Score (GCS)>12
Upper Respiratory Tract Infection
Wound Laceration/ Incised/ Bite Face
Sprain/ Ligament Injury Ankle Joint
Closed Fracture Radius/ Ulna
Sprain/ Ligament Injury Wrist Joint
Bronchiolitis
Lower Respiratory Tract Infection
Non-Specific Viral Rash
Probable Infectious Gastroenteritis